"...You're just going to have to try it to understand its genius."

MSN.com

"It was a risky proposition, but it has paid off. Meatloaf lovers can't get enough of the bakery's savory treats."

Food & Wine

"At Chicago's Meatloaf Bakery, Cynthia Kallile rethinks the comfort-food classic with recipes like her chorizo-spiked El Loaf del Fuego. Using mashed potatoes and other sides as icing, she turns loaves into layer cakes (perfect for parties) and cupcakes (single servings)."

Hungry Hound—ABC7 Chicago

"It's beautiful too. It's not just for looks, it actually does taste very good too. Very interesting flavors, dipping sauces as well—all home-made, nothing out of the can. And then the little Loafies... little light bite-size. I love these!"

Midwest Living

"I'll take a dozen meatloaves to go. Trust us on this. Cynthia Kallile's fusion of two classic comfort foods works."

190 North—ABC7 Chicago

"This ain't your mama's bakery."
